

Homework Survival Kit Checklist

One of the keys to getting homework done is having supplies in one place. A Homework Survival Kit will prevent you from continually being distracted by the need to go searching for supplies, and will free you from last-minute trips to the store for paper, note cards, folders, etc.

These are the items you should have in your Homework Survival Kit:

- Bible: KJV or NKJV
- assignment book
- #2 pencils
- pens
- highlighters: green and yellow
- loose leaf writing paper
- erasers
- index cards: 3x5 size
- index cards: 4x6 size
- colored pencils
- markers
- tape
- hole punch
- white out
- pencil sharpener
- scissors
- glue stick
- ruler
- stapler
- paper clips
- folders
- dictionary
- protractor
- calculator
- atlas
- thesaurus
- almanac

*These are the most important supplies you need. Try to obtain these items as soon as possible. Add additional homework supplies as you are able to.

I agree to help my son/daughter put together a Homework Survival Kit.
